

THE WORLD MOURNS

With France for the Cowardly
Murder of Her President.

ACTION TAKEN AT WASHINGTON

Expressive of the Sorrow of the People of the United States.

THE HOUSES OF CONGRESS ADJOURN

As a Mark of Respect to the Memory of Carnot—Official Information Received From the French Ambassador—A Sensation Created in Berlin
By the News—British Court in Mourning.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Official announcement of the assassination of President Carnot came to M. Patenotre, the French ambassador to the United States early to-day in two cablegrams, the first announcing the attack on the President of the French republic and the second the death of M. Carnot. The minister was just about to start to the department of state to see Secretary Gresham to communicate the fact officially to this government when a reporter called on him and was told of what had been received. M. Patenotre will send a message of regret to his government of the sad occurrence and the flag flying over the legation building in this city has been displayed at half-mast. Secretary Gresham also received a cablegram this morning from United States Ambassador Eustis, at Paris, reporting that he had been notified by the minister of foreign affairs of the French republic of the assassination of President Carnot and that his successor will be chosen on Wednesday.

M. Patenotre remained some time with Secretary Gresham and apprised him officially of the news he had received. The secretary was very much affected at the receipt of the information given him, and in an unofficial manner expressed to Ambassador Patenotre his deep regret at what had taken place. A message to congress conveying the intelligence of President Carnot's death was prepared. According to custom the representatives of the foreign governments here will individually and in their official capacity call on the French ambassador and express to him their condolences. The following official action was taken by the state department on the receipt of Ambassador Eustis' official notification:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, 1
WASHINGTON, June 25. f

Encl. Ambassador, Paris, France:
Express to the minister of foreign affairs the profound sorrow with which the President and the American people have heard of the atrocious crime which has robbed the sister republic of its wise, humane and patriotic chief magistrate. (Signed) GRESHAM.

The President took notice of the sad tragedy in the following message to congress:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:
The shocking intelligence has been received that the president of the French Republic met his death yesterday at the hands of an assassin. This terrible event which has overtaken a sister republic cannot fail to deeply arouse the sympathies of the American nation, while the violent termination of a career promising so much in aid of liberty and in advancing civilization, should be mourned as an affliction of mankind. GROVER CLEVELAND.
Executive Mansion, June 25.

THE SENATE ADJOURNS

As a Mark of Respect to the Memory of the Murdered President of France.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The death of President Carnot was the sole theme about the senate to-day, and was recalled in a prayer marked by deep feeling delivered by the Rev. Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the senate. Immediately after the opening prayer Senator Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the senate of the United States unites with the American people in expressing to the people of France their sorrow and sympathy in the national bereavement they are suffering from the cruel blow of an assassin which was aimed at the peace of France and fell upon the heart of President Carnot."

"And as a mark of respect due to the memory of the wise, virtuous and patriotic president of the republic of France the senate will at the close of this proceeding stand adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock."

"Second—That the President of the United States is requested to communicate this expression of national sorrow to the government of the republic and to Madame Carnot."

Senator Morgan made a brief speech in which he referred to the patriotism of the people of the French republic and the cordiality of relations between the two republics.

At 10:30 the senate adjourned.

THE HOUSE TAKES ACTION.

Resolutions Adopted and Adjournment
Taken Until To-morrow.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—When the house met to-day it was generally understood that it would adjourn early out of respect to the memory of President Carnot. Chaplain Dagby referred in his prayer to the great calamity which has fallen on our sister republic in the murder of the President. A message from the President of the United States was announced and Executive Clerk Prudden appeared at the door bearing a large envelope containing the President's announcement to the senate and house of the death of President Carnot.

Mr. McCreary, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, thereupon rose and offered the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That the house of representatives of the United States of America has heard with profound sorrow of the assassination of President Carnot and tenders the people of France sincere sympathy in their national bereavement."

"That the President of the United States be requested to communicate this expression of sorrow to the government of the republic of France and to Madame Carnot and that as a mark of respect to the memory of the president of the French republic the house of representatives do now adjourn."

Mr. McCreary and Mr. Hitt spoke on the resolutions and they were adopted unanimously, the house at once adjourning.

British Court in Mourning.
LONDON, June 25.—Following the precedent adopted at the time of the death of the late President James A. Garfield, the British court will go into mourning for a week out of respect to the memory of the late President Carnot.

Bulletins posted at the white lodge, Richmond, this morning, as well as at York house, at Mansion house and other points, say that the infant heir presumptive to the throne of Great Britain and Ireland is doing well.

The news of the assassination of President Carnot caused much grief at the white lodge, where only yesterday the duke of York received a message of congratulations from the late president.

ITALIANS IN PARIS.

Consternation Among Them on the News of the Assassination.

PARIS, June 25.—The news of the murder of President Carnot has caused consternation among the Italian residents in this city. The president of the Italian chamber of commerce, so soon as the president's death became known, immediately drew up an address of condolence which was signed by the chief Italian residents of Paris, and which was subsequently presented to Premier Dupuy, who also received a telegraphic message from Baron Blanc, Italian minister for foreign affairs, saying that King Humbert, the Italian nation and the two chambers of the government of Italy "shared the grief into which France has been plunged by the hand of an anarchist—a man without a country."

NOT AN ITALIAN.

Now Alleged That the Assassin is From Southern Switzerland.

PARIS, June 25.—Signor Gressman, the Italian ambassador, received this afternoon a dispatch from Rome saying that the investigation which the Italian authorities have made into the identity of Santo, the assassin, shows that he is not an Italian, but that he comes from Ticino, the southernmost canton of Switzerland, where the large majority of the inhabitants speak Italian.

In the French Chamber.

PARIS, June 25.—The chamber of deputies was thronged to the utmost to-day, and there was great excitement when the president, Cassimir Perier, entered. Every person present arose and remained standing while the president of the chamber of deputies read M. Dupuy's letter making the formal announcement of the death of President Carnot, and adding that the whole of France was stupefied by the abominable crime.

After the reading of the letter M. Cassimir Perier delivered a speech in which he spoke touchingly of the dead president and of the great loss France had sustained.

The chamber of deputies then adjourned.

The general public of Germany recognizes the gravity of the crime from a political standpoint.

AGAINST CAMDEN.

Ex-Governor Wilson speaks at Martinsburg—Not as Abusive as Usual.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

MARTINSBURG, W. VA., June 25.—The first gun of the campaign was exploded here by Ex-Governor Willis Wilson, who spoke for two and a half hours in the court house this afternoon. The audience was a very lean-looking one when he began, but he had a very fair-sized crowd when he finished. He talked upon the tariff question, principally, and was not sparing in his reference to what he termed the "little handful" of Democratic senators who were working with Republicans in the senate. His sarcastic allusion to West Virginia's millionaire senator did not sound sweet to the Camden men present, but was heartily applauded by the Wilson contingent. His closing advice was that if the people want a man to represent them and their interests they should get out of the ranks of millionaires to find him. The ex-governor was not as abusive as usual, and made a much better impression than he has heretofore made.

WOMEN ON THE WAR PATH.

They Attack the Work Train at Walston. Situation Still Critical.

PUNXSOTAWNEY, Pa., June 25.—Since the men attacked a train of coal and iron police at Adrian last night the women here put on war paint at Walston. Early to-day they massed themselves and made a charge on the work train, but before any serious damage was done the guards drove them off. At noon Captain Clark, who has charge of coal and iron police at Adrian, was in Adrian, and a mob of angry women pointed upon him, and, before the militia could interfere, they gave him a severe pummeling. Stones were thrown at General Manager Fisher's train at this place last night while he was being taken to Altoona to attend a meeting of the mine owners. Both the engineer and the fireman were hurt. Notwithstanding the presence of the military the situation is still considered critical.

THERE is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
